

A Complementary Partnership:

*The Minnesota GIS/LIS Consortium
And The Minnesota Governor's Council for Geographic Information*

Both the Minnesota GIS/LIS Consortium and the Minnesota Governor's Council on Geographic Information were created to facilitate the effective use of geographic information and geographic information technology within Minnesota. They play complementary, but distinct roles. This overview briefly explains those roles and how the Council and Consortium work together.

*Produced For You By:
The GIS/LIS Consortium and
The Governor's Council on Geographic Information
June, 1999*